Psalm 78:1-4, 12-16

Give ear, O my people, to my teaching: incline your ears to the words of my mouth!

I will open my mouth in a parable;

I will utter dark sayings from of old, things that we have heard and known, that our forebears have told us.

We will not hide from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, the might and wonders God has wrought.

The Lord wrought marvels in the sight of their forebears in the land of Egypt, in the fields of Zoan, the Lord divided the sea and let them pass through it, and made the waters stand like a heap, led them with a cloud in the daytime, and all the night with a fiery light, cleft rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as from the deep, made streams come out of the rock, and caused waters to flow down like rivers.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven, is seated at the right hand of the Father, and will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Amen.
